

I write this in support for the New Jersey Do Not Call List law. The FCC should allow the regulation to stay in place without changes. And the National Do Not Call list should infact adopt the and standards.